October Meeting U. D. C.

Pickens Chapter, U. D. C., held its October meeting with Mrs. T. J. Mauldin last Thursday afternoon. Several business matters were discussed, the most important among them being the arrangements for a bazaar to be held on the 24th of November.

The literary program was especially interesting, as John C. Calhoun was the subject of study; Mrs. W. T. McFall read a poem, "Memories;" a short sketch of the life of John C. Calhoun was read by Mrs. L. E. Wiggins; Mrs. W. M. Melton beautifully sang "Annie Laurie" and "Carolina," the accompaniment being played on the old Calhoun piano which is now in the possession of Mrs. Mauldin. A love letter written by John C. Calhoun to his fiancée a short time before his marriage was read.

Mrs. Aaron Boggs, who was a close neighbor and friend of Mrs. John C. Calhoun, was present and told many interesting things concerning the Calhoun family. She had with her several relics of Mrs. Calhoun's handwork and presented to the chapter a lovely piece of lace knitted by Mrs. Calhoun, the thread having been spun by Mrs. Boggs. The chapter so much appreciated Mrs. Boggs' interest in their work that she was unanimously elected an honorary life member.

Mrs. T. J. Mauldin will represent the Pickens chapter at the state convention which meets in Aiken the 17th of November. Delightful refreshments were served, after which "Dixie" was spiritedly played on the old-time piano and the meeting closed.

Beside the regular members the visitors present were Mesdames Aaron Boggs, D. W. Hiott, H. B. Hendricks, L. E. Wiggins and Miss Rachel Dickinson of Pendleton.

Looper-Williams

At the home of Mr. A. J. Looper of Easley last Thursday afternoon, October 28, Miss Clovie Looper was married to Mr. Odus Williams, the ceremony being performed by their pastor, Rev. D. W. Hiott, in the presence of a few friends and relatives.

Attendants were Miss Geneva Looper and Mr. Beattie Williams, Miss Rula Hendricks and Mr. Oscar Turner, who entered in order following the bride and groom, while Walter Turner played the wedding march.

The bride presented a lovely picture, wearing a beautiful wedding gown of white satin with fur trimming. She is the second daughter of Mr. A. J. Looper and is a charming young woman who is very popular among her many friends. The groom is a well-known young man of the Cross Roads section, where he and his bride have grown up as neighbors since childhood. They will make their home for the present in Easley.

The Sentinel joins with many friends in wishing them "all the joy that they may wish."

Pickens Mill Items

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fant of near Norris were the guests of his brother-in-law, J. A. McNeely, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hughes visited his aunt, Mrs. M. E. Hughes, of Greenville recently. Several from the village attended the all-day singing at Griffin Sunday and report an enjoyable time.

Among the social events of the week was a tacky party given at the home of Tommy Hayes.

Messrs. J. D. Holder, Willie Parson and John Harris were in Greenville Saturday night on business. They made the trip in J. D.'s car.

Rev. James A. Hughes of Laurens county visited the home of J. A. McNeely Sunday.

MOUNTAIN SPROUT.

Mr. Leigh Hunt and four children of Mt. Carmel section were shopping in Pickens Tuesday.

The monument erected to N. O. Cofran at Secona will be unveiled next Sunday at 12:15.

Good Lyceum Course

Pickens is to have a good lyceum course this winter. Six of the Redpath Lyceum Bureau's shows have been signed up. The course consists of the following entertainments: The Musical Entertainers, the Raweis, the Savaranoffs, Hazeltine Opera Co., the Regniers, Schildret's Hungarian Orchestra. The first of these, the Musical Entertainers, will appear here Wednesday night, November 12. Season tickets can be bought at the Keowee Pharmacy and Hobbs-Henderson. The prices are: Double ticket for season, $3.75; single ticket, $2; school children $1.

This is a good lyceum course as any town the size of Pickens ever had the pleasure of seeing and our people should show their appreciation of this excellent line of shows. Dr. J. D. Yongue will have charge of the course. Get your season ticket now.

Oyster Supper

The faculty of the Pickens high school will give an oyster supper in Parson's hall, over B. F. Parsons store, next Friday night, November 5, from 7 to 10 o'clock. The proceeds from the supper will be used to furnish and equip the school building. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The following prices will be charged.

Oyster stew 25 cents.
Fried oysters 25 cents.
Coffee, pickles and crackers included.
Coffee and cake 10 cents.

From Marietta Route 2

Our citizens are a very busy set of people these beautiful sunny days—sawmilling, hauling lumber, picking cotton, sowing grain, etc.

W. A. Edens is having the lumber cut to build a new residence, and soon the saw and hammers will begin ringing.

Messrs. J. D. McConnell and Lewis Crenshaw were visiting at Belton, Anderson county, last week. They report having had a nice time on their trip. Wonder if Lewis won't be for going back occasionally?

The winter term of school began at Peters Creek Monday, October 26, with Miss Ruby Baker of Pickens as principal and Miss Catherine Wilkes of York as assistant. We believe the board of trustees were very fortunate in getting these ladies to teach for us, as they seem to be able and experienced teachers.

E. N. McJunkin is having another dwelling erected on his farm in this section. Mr. McJunkin is a hustling good farmer and is bringing this farm up to the standard.

We suppose there was a good attendance at the annual birthday dinner of Mrs. Harriet Freeman of Dacusville on the 27th of October.

We learn with regret that W. E. Edens (Dook) is seriously ill at his home in the Oolenoy section on Pickens route 4. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

Misses Ethel Turner and Ada Looper, two charming young ladies of Dacusville, visited L. S. Edens last Sunday.

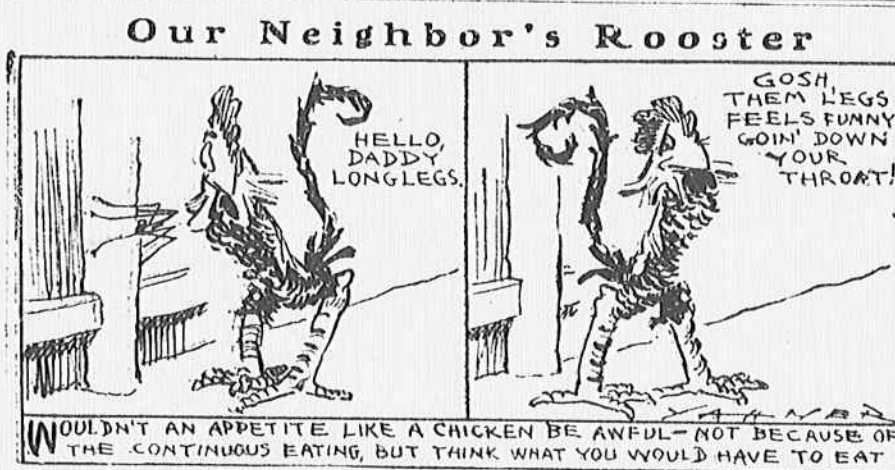

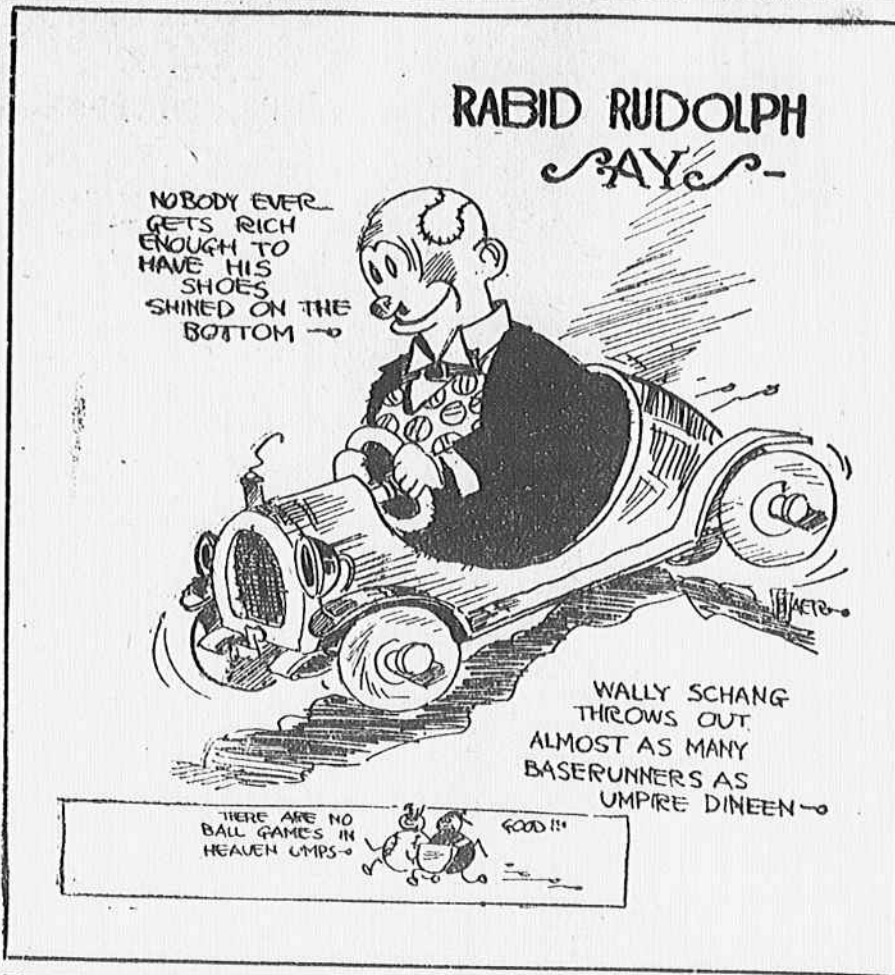

We will close by saying to Uncle Josh and the rest of the correspondents for The Sentinel: Let's help the editor make The Sentinel the best paper in upper South Carolina.

PROGRESSIVE.

Death at Liberty

A sad death was that of Mrs. W. E. Christopher, which occurred Monday, October 25, at her home in Liberty. She was about 32 years of age, and before her marriage was Miss Margaret Riggins, daughter of A. B. Riggins of this county. Besides her husband she leaves five children, one an infant.

Funeral services were held at Six Mile Tuesday following her death, conducted by Rev. W. C. Seaborn and Rev. T. E. Durham, and interment took place. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of many friends.

Land Sold Monday

Several valuable tracts of land were sold at the court house last Monday, which was salesday. The Larkin Hughes estate was sold in three tracts of 58, 62 and 52 acres. W. T. O'Dell bought two tracts, paying $2550 for 58 acres, and $2340 for the 62 acre tract. B. F. Freeman bought the third tract, which contained 52 acres for $975. The Bowen lot in Norris containing 1.31 acres was bought by Emma C. Bowen for $500. The Freeman property in the eastern part of the county containing about 30 acres was bought by Ellis Davis for $750. About five acres at Easley belonging to the Barr estate was bought for $810 by Martin Barr. Four tracts of land about two miles north of Easley known as the N. Duncan land was sold as follows: 26 acres to G. W. Couch for $1050, 41 acres to W. T. Bates for $1675, 40 acres to J. Milton King for $1500, 27 acres to J. A. Hitt for $700. There were several other sales involving smaller amounts.

Peters Creek News Notes

Charlie Foster of this place carried his mother to see her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Porcher, who is sick at her home in Greenville.

Miss Verner Foster and Mrs. J. R. Foster visited Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Hunt, Jr., last Sunday.

W. H. Williams and family, accompanied by Miss Ruby Baker and Miss Catherine Wilkes, the teachers at Peters Creek school, visited R. J. Edens of the Sandy Flat section in Greenville county Sunday.

The health of this community is good at this writing, except Mrs. Bishop, who is very sick at the home of her sister, Mrs. Reed.

Harvey Singleton and wife visited the latter's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Foster, Sunday night.

J. E. Singleton is improving fast now and is able to see over his farm.

Hogwallow Items

Ellick Hellwanger went to Thunderation the first of the week and swapped a calf for a shotgun and a songbook, both of which he will need if he ever attempts to sing.

Fletcher Henstep, who is a prospective candidate for corner four years from now, mixed business with pleasure Sunday attended the preaching at Hog Ford.

Somebody threw a rock and broke out one of the window lights in the mail carrier's spectacles the other day. He will keep that eye shut until he can have a new glass put in.

A heavy bunch of clouds passed over Hogwallow yesterday, bound for a Sunday school picnic near Rye Straw.

The postmaster did not rest well last night. He says every time he eats cheese for supper he is bothered with rats.

Rev. J. H. Strong of Washington, D. C., a representative of the Radcliffe Chautauqua, has been in Pickens several days endeavoring to make an engagement here for his company. Provided he gets the signers the company will come to Pickens, and Mr. Strong thinks he will get them.

Local and Personal

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grant of Murphy, October 29, a daughter.

Mrs. Miles of Greenville is spending sometime with her niece, Mrs. T. J. Mauldin.

Miss Rachel Dickinson of Pendleton is the guest of Mrs. J. J. Lewis in Pickens.

Editor C. T. Martin of the Easley Progress was a visitor in Pickens Monday.

Miss Alberta Yongue of Pickens left last Wednesday for Bethune, where she will teach school this winter.

Jim Porter, an expert barber formerly of Liberty, has accepted position with Porter's barber shop.

Littleton College, which carried an advertisement in this paper during the summer, has had the largest opening it has had in several years.

Report of cotton ginned in Pickens county up to October 18 was 4,801 bales; at the same time last year 7,827 bales had been ginned, a shortage of 3,026 bales.

Miss Meda Boggs, teacher of music in Spartan academy, visited homefolks in Pickens this week. She was accompanied by her friend, Miss Shaw, of the G. W. C.

Prominent citizens of the eastern part of the county in town Monday were: John T. Hitt, James K. Latham, T. M. Jones, Mark F. Williams, Ellis Davis and others.

Rev. J. M. Stansell, a ministerial student of Six Mile Baptist academy, will preach at Antioch Baptist church the second Sunday in November at 11 o'clock.

The Baptist church at Norris is making preparations to build six additional rooms to their church building to be used for Sunday school purposes.

The Ladies' Cottage prayer meeting will meet Friday evening at 4 o'clock with Mrs. Lou Curtis. All the ladies of Pickens are cordially invited to attend.

Lee C. Lynch of Pisgah Forest, N. C., was in Pickens a short while last Wednesday. He and his father, Major G. M. Lynch, were returning to the home of the latter after a visit to relatives near Seneca.

Among the college students to spend the week-end at their homes were: Fletcher Porter of Carolina, Homer Edens of Clemson, Harry Robinson and Ossie Hendricks of Furman and Willie McDaniel of B. M. I.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Griffin in Pickens last Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Jennings and little daughter of Greenville, Miss Mae Griffin, who is staying in Greenville, and Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Woodruff, of Catechee.

W. Frank Christopher, who has been in the barber shop in Pickens for the past eight or ten years, has accepted a position with a barber shop in Liberty and took up his new duties there Monday. His family will join him within a short while. Frank is a good barber and we regret to give this good family up.

Boone Carey, who has been working with the Chiquola hotel in Anderson, came home last week complaining of not feeling well. Saturday night he had an attack of appendicitis and was in a serious condition for several hours. He is improving now and it is hoped that he will continue to improve until he is entirely well.

Next Monday, November 8, at 7:30 p. m., in Easley at the school auditorium a prohibition rally will be held. Two of the most famous speakers in our country will deliver addresses—Rev. George W. Morrow, of Detroit, Mich., and Hon. John G. Woolley, the world-famed orator, lecturer, journalist, reformer. If you miss these two addresses you will miss the opportunity of a lifetime. No admission fee—free as water. Come, let everybody come.
